

A CAFE

Project Year : 2020
Location : Blitar, Indonesia
Project Type : Commission Project
Project Team : Fikri Izza
Zulfikar Ibrahim
Satria Karunia
Hilman Prakoso
Dimar Utama

probono project research project commission project workshop
 built project exhibition

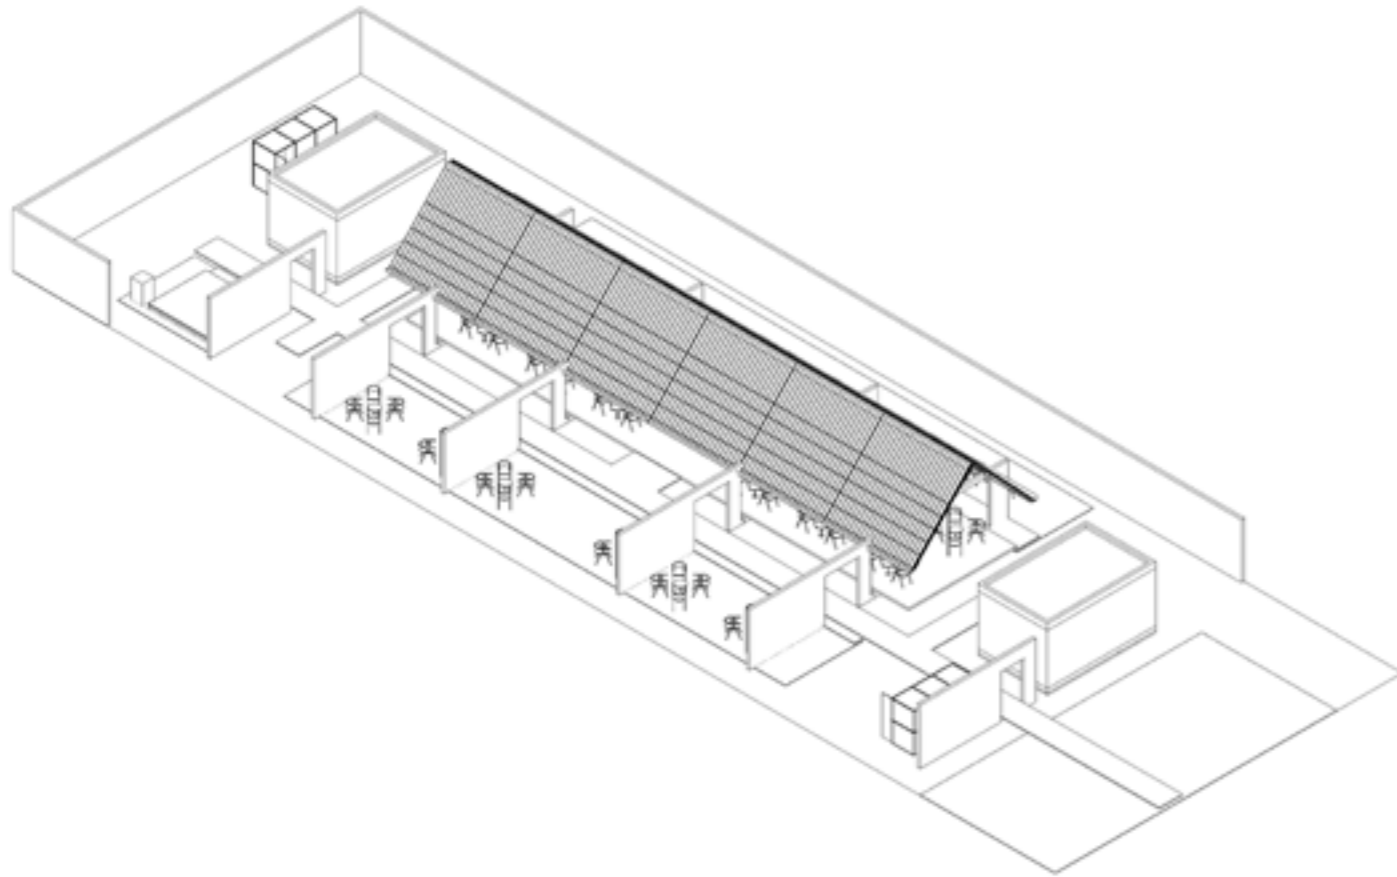

Short Desc. : This serene and organic cafe in the bustling streets of Blitar offers a unique experience, showcasing stunning views of the nearby paddy fields and boasting a striking building design that draws the eye and captures the imagination.

Tags : Blitar, Coffee culture, Cafe design, Organic architecture

DESIGN OVERVIEW

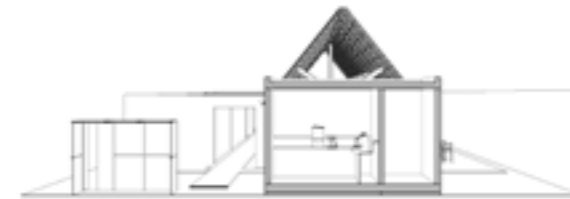

Axonometry

attacement

floor plan : this picture details the space program and building circulation and here there are commercial booth spaces, outdoor & indoor dining, utility boxes, service booths, and prayer areas

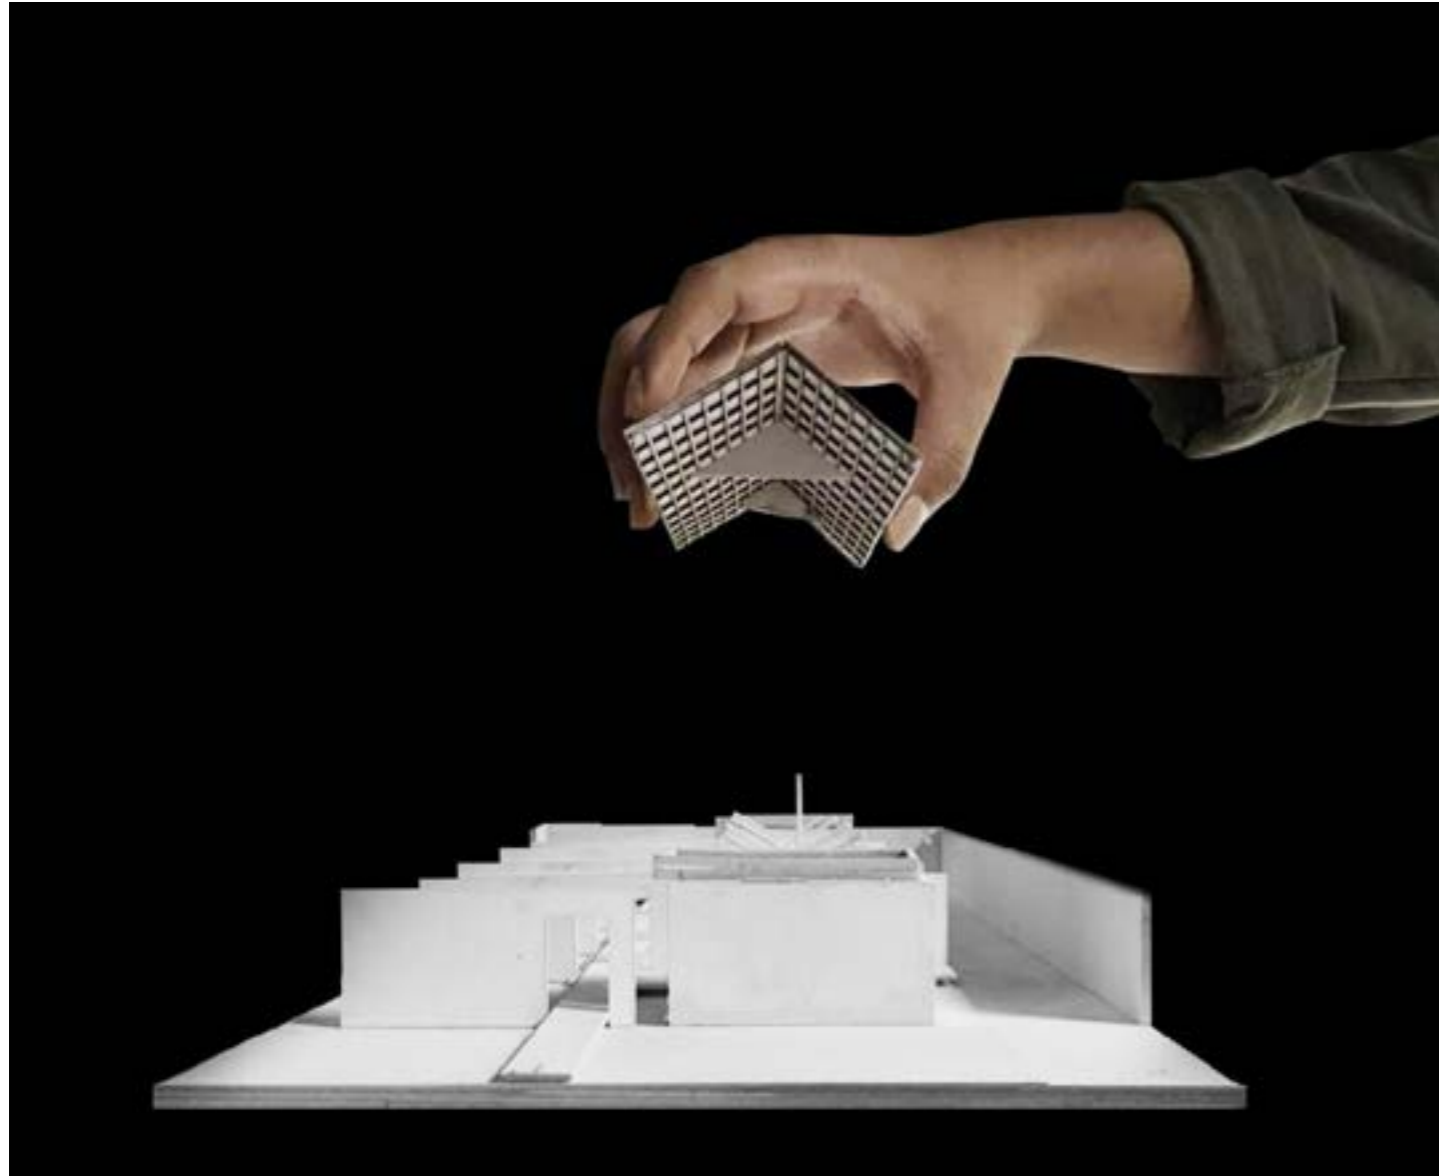

section 01 : this thoughtfully designed outdoor space features framed walkways that provide a unique spatial experience, along with strategically placed seating areas that offer stunning views of the surrounding paddy vista and optional privacy under the soothing shade of nearby trees.

section 02 : this thoughtfully designed outdoor space features framed walkways that provide a unique spatial experience, along with strategically placed seating areas that offer stunning views of the surrounding paddy vista and optional privacy under the soothing shade of nearby trees.

ATTACHMENT

a cafe in model

front gate area

indoor dining area

front gate area

indoor dining area

backyard area

hallway area